

of New York City

Allison Harden

Senior Vice President, Macquarie Capital (USA) Inc.

Allison is a Senior Vice President at Macquarie Capital focused on Principal Investments & Private Capital raising for venture and growth equity opportunities across North America. Allison is the program director for the Macquarie Capital Venture Studio and leads early-stage investments in education. Additionally, Allison has led numerous capital raising efforts across debt and equity where Macquarie invests balance capital and invites co-investors to participate alongside in the transaction.

Prior to joining Macquarie in 2014, Allison worked for Rabobank International based in New York with expat rotations in London, Amsterdam and Sydney. At Rabobank, Allison was focused on leading and participating in debt deals on agribusiness and broader food & beverage transactions globally.

Allison graduated with a BS in Business Administration with a dual concentration in finance and economics from Babson College. Allison is a board member of Women@Macquarie and serves on the board of Girls Inc. of NYC, a Macquarie Foundation partner.